5.1.2 Review and Possible Action on Fiscal Year 2022/23 Measure U Programming Grant Applications

IGNITE Collective, Inc. (a.k.a. Ignite Futures) Founder and Educational Director Molly K. Rearick, EdD outlined the information in her application.

Program Director Kim Anaclerio reported that the application for the Eastern Sierra Nordic Ski Association (ESNSA) may need to be pulled due to them receiving funding from too many Town of Mammoth Lakes (TOML) sources, and said that they may not be able to combine with Measure U Funds with Youth Sports Programming funding. Ms. Anaclerio and members of the Committee said they would return at the next meeting with a definitive answer.

ESNSA President Nicole Godoy and Secretary Lara Walker voiced their desire to be considered for funding and discussed the purpose of other funding through the Town versus the purpose of this funding request, and said they would consider giving up the other TOML funding if it would allow them to receive funds from Measure U which would allow a higher grant amount. Ms. Godoy and Ms. Walker outlined the information in their application.

Valentine Eastern Sierra Reserve (VESR) Director Carol Blanchette outlined the information in the VESR application.

The Committee went into recess at 2:47 p.m.

The Committee returned from recess at 2:52 p.m.
